Four of the British steamer Edolo, which was sunk off these islands by a submarine today, while on a voyage from the river Plate, South America, to Manchester with a cargo of grain, have been landed here by a British patrol boat. They say that the Edolo was torpedoed without notice and that they did not see the submarine until after they were in their life boats.

A patrol boat is reported to have been struck and severely damaged by a shell fired by the submarine.

BARNES LOADING HIS GUN FOR ROOSEVELT

(By MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Syracuse, N. Y., May 1.—Counsel for William Barnes in his suit for libel against Theodore Roosevelt spent today preparing evidence for submission at the trial of the case next week. It was said that about twenty-five witnesses, many of them state officials or former state officials had been summoned to appear by the Barnes forces. It was stated positively that Mr. Barnes himself would go on the stand.

Counsel for Colonel Roosevelt spent the day in making plans for completion of their case. The opinion prevailed among the attorneys on both sides that the plaintiff's first witness Thursday, the Roosevelt attorneys said they doubted whether they could rest their case before Wednesday afternoon. Colonel Roosevelt spent the better part of the day catching up with his correspondence.

FREE LIFE READINGS TO ALL WHO WRITE AT ONCE

The well-known European Astrologer, Prof. Roxor, has once more decided to favor the people of this country with free readings of their lives from his office in Holland.

"Prof. Roxor's fame is so well known in this country that he hardly needs an introduction from us. His power to read the lives of people, no matter at what distance they may be, is described as simply marvelous."

In August 1915 he cleared up the mystery of the Great War, and informed all his clients that it was a herculean task to predict its outcome. In his forecast it was clearly shown that most of the crowned heads of Europe and various nationalities and reputations all over the world would be led by him to be their master, and follow in his footsteps. He tells you what you are capable of, and how you can be successful. He mentions your friends and enemies and foretells the good and bad periods in your life. His desire is to let past, present and future events will astonish and help you.

Baroness Blumquist, one of the most talented ladies of Paris, says:

"Thank you for my Complete Life Reading, which is really of extraordinary accuracy. I had already consulted several astrologers, but never before have I been answered with so much truth, or received pleasure. I will recommend you and make your marvelous science known to my friends and acquaintances."

If you want to take advantage of this special offer, write me a few lines of your life, mention the name of your birth, and get a Trial Reading free. Money not necessary. Simply send your full name and address written by yourself, the date of birth, and the date of your birth, and state whether Male or Female.

If you wish you may enclose 10 cents in stamp of your own country to pay postage and clerical work. Do not enclose coins. Address letter to Prof. ROXOR, Dept. 265-A, 3rd fl., General Market, The Hague, Holland. Postage to Holland 3 cents.

We are informed that Prof. Roxor's office is open as usual and all letters are safely delivered and collected in Holland.

OSBORNE AGAIN IS IDENTIFIED BY RAE TANZER

Young Milliner Changes Testimony to Swear That Man She Knew as 'Oliver Osborne' Is Really James W.

DEVAL WEST IS GUEST OF GENERAL CARRANZA

(By MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

New York, May 1.—Miss Hattie West, the young milliner who sued James W. Osborne for $50,000 for alleged breach of promise to marry, and later withdrew the suit, saying Mr. Osborne was not the man who courted her under the name of Oliver Osborne, changed her testimony again today, and under oath identified James W. Osborne as her admirer, Oliver Osborne.

Miss Tanzer's renewed identification came while she was offered representation by Assistant United States Attorney Roger B. Wood. She was a witness for the defense in the trial of Frank D. Safford, former clerk in the Kensington hotel, in Plainfield, N. J., for perjury in connection with the breach of promise case.

Miss Tanzer refused to answer many questions put to her on direct examination regarding the identity of the "Oliver Osborne" who had promised to marry her.

Lady Loses Her Temper.

When Mr. Wood took up his cross-examination, questioning her with severity, Miss Tanzer apparently lost her temper and said:

"Sir, James W. Osborne is the man who was running around with."

Miss Tanzer admitted to Mr. Wood that she previously had said James W. Osborne was not the same man as Oliver Osborne.

FIFTY MILLION SCARE TURNED TO REJOICING

(By MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

San Francisco, May 1.—The $50,000 scare which fell upon the Pacific slope last night, because of a threatened severe damage to fruit by frost, has turned to rejoicing. A drizzling rain swept most of California and Oregon, keeping the temperature up and tremendously improving all crop prospects already above the average.

In southern California the apple crop suffered considerably, apple orchards being scattered on higher elevations than other fruits. No other misfortune was reported.

Snow fell in Flagstaff, Ariz., covering the flower beds.

Disorders in Military Prison.

Watertown, N. Y., May 1.—Copies of the Kingston, Ont., Whig, received here today tell of disorders in the military prison at Fort Henry, Kingston, last Thursday night, in which it was said several German prisoners were bayoneted, two of them being afterwards taken to a hospital, one in a serious condition.

OFFICIALS AWAIT RETURN OF DUVAL WEST TO CAPITAL

Personal Representative of President Wilson Expected to Divulge Important Information Regarding Mexico.

(By MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Washington, May 1.—Administration officials are awaiting with interest the return to Washington of Duval West, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico, who sailed from Vera Cruz today for Havana and will reach here next week.

Secretary Bryan said today the State department had received several letters from Mr. West giving incomplete returns of his inquiries and conferences with leaders of rival Mexican factions. The letters left much to be disclosed in the full report which Mr. West will make to the president.

Mr. West has had personal interviews with Generals Carranza, Villa and Zapata and many of their supporters and administration officials are keenly interested in his report.

Tommy's advice to the state department indicate an impending battle near Aguas Calientes between the forces of Generals Villa and Obregon. The latter was sold to be advancing from Celaya toward Aguas Calientes, where General Villa is reorganizing his forces, now reported to total 35,000 men.

NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT PROTECTING AMERICANS

Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, May 1.—Jose Matorra, Villa's chieftain in Sonora, arrived here yesterday packed his pistol. Asked what he had done to protect Americans and other foreigners who are threatened by likeable Yaquis, Matorra answered:

"I have nothing to say."

Matorra's wife and daughter preceded him here. They continued on to Los Angeles and according to report current here, took with them $350,000 gold.

Matorra was reported to have begun forcing Chinese merchants here to exchange their gold for Villa's currency at the rate of $1 gold for $2 currency. On the American side Villa's currency is selling 15 for 1.

INFLUENCE IN FUTURE GREAT.

"It is, however, with regard to the future that I should hope the most from the influence of the United States. The United States has the right to dissolve without substituting for the system of alliances under which Europe has been suffering an international guarantee of peace."

And a strong lead given in that direction, as it might be given by the United States, would be likely to be backed by the British government and by the better elements of public opinion everywhere.

PRATT SAYS HE, NOT SEBASTIAN, WAS WITH WIFE

(By MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Denver, Colo., May 1.—Harper H. Pratt, undertaker, was acquitted by a jury here tonight on a charge of complicity in a plot to defraud insurance companies out of $19,000 by means of a death plot, in which Valley Turley, who has pleaded guilty, was the principal. J. Lofton Davidson, former partner of Pratt, has been convicted on the same charge.

The jury which acquitted Pratt was out about two hours.

FOOD DEALERS MUST FACE TRIAL.

Washington, May 1.—Duval West, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico and Rear Admiral Carpenter took luncheon with General Carranza at Vera Cruz before Mr. West sailed yesterday for the United States. Mr. West will come from Key West by rail to Washington, to report to the president.

Henry Lane Wilson, the last American ambassador to Mexico, called today on Assistant Secretary Phillips at the state department.

ORAHOOD ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF FRAUD

(By MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

A STRENUOUS LIFE' SURE CURE FOR BLUES

(By MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Los Angeles, May 1.—Charles E. Sebastian, suspended chief of police, and Mrs. Lillian Pratt, charged with having contributed to the dependency of Edith Serkin, the 17-year-old half-sister of Mrs. Pratt, were so situated over testimony introduced by witnesses for the defense in the trial today that they left the court room all smiles.

Mrs. Sebastian, who had listened attentively to the testimony, escorted her husband down town to complete campaign plans for the primary May 4 in which Sebastian is a candidate for mayor. Mrs. Pratt hurried to her husband, A. R. Pratt, who had just testified strongly in her behalf, took his arm and departed with him, radiantly.

EXPENSE SLIPS PRODUCED.

Pratt, who is a cattle buyer, produced his expense slips to support his statement that he was with Edith Serkin mentioned as those on which she and Mrs. Pratt were with Sebastian at the "computation room" next door to police headquarters. He also denied that he had ever quarreled with his wife over Sebastian, a point particularly emphasized by the prosecution.

He is disowned by his "gentleman," denominated by his sweetheart and ready to suicide when the tide turns and the jolly rascal is cleared and exonerated.

Besides this Tom has the genuine "Charlie Chaplin" swing. Oh, he's the real thing, and Marlowe, the fair one, is charming and so sweet and unsuspecting she'll captivate your heart.

The Albuquerque high school seniors have the "spice and glee" to make "A Strenuous Life," that merry comedy ramdy, a hit.

It will be given at the high school auditorium May 7.
